

FGLDP Year in Review-2009

Winter:

A new board took office in January 2009.

Robin Sackevich, President
Dee King, Vice President
Linda Edgar, Treasurer
Sara Spiegel, Secretary

Fundraising plans were set during the strategic planning meeting.

- 1) Calendar of photos of members dogs
- 2) Talent contest open to all
- 3) Appearing at Lansing functions to get the word out about our organization.

Discussions were opened into possibly using Waverly Golf Course as a possible dog park was opened.

We held a program on dog body language taught by Best Friends Pet Resort in Lansing.

New brochure for FGLDP was designed and printed.

Spring

Soldan Dog Park was listed in Dog Fancy Magazine as one of the top 10 dog parks in the US.

Dog Paddle in May brought in $250, 4 renewed memberships and one new membership.

In May we held a program called "A Lesson in Canine Nutrition" by Robin Sackevich

Donor sign listing all of FGLDP's major donors was placed on the Northwest side of the park.

Summer:

FGLDP members participated in the 4th of July Parade in Lansing.

Dog Paddle in September

Fall

FGLDP had a vendor booth at Walk for the Animals a fund raiser for Capital Area Humane Society.

A program called "Visiting the Dog Park" was taught by Dee King

Doggy Talent show in December.